

DUNKARD CHURCH

Antietam Battlefield, Sharpsburg, Md.

The original church stood in the midst of some of the fiercest fighting and changed hands several times. Old photographs show its shell-pocked walls. It was destroyed by a storm in 1921, but a local citizen salvaged and stored much of the original material, which was used in this restored structure built in 1962.

Published by DAVID TRAUB, 2313 South Road, Baltimore, Md.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD

Address